Personal Life

Shakira's personal life has been scrutinized throughout her career, notably following her high-profile romance with Gerard Piqué. After dating in 2010, the pair had two children. Both Shakira and Piqué have private yet public lives, attracting media attention.

Kellie's country music success story is known to millions worldwide. Still, many wonder why she stopped singing recently. Her latest CD, "The Woman I Am," was released in 2013. Kellie sometimes performed live after that, but she hasn't finished a project in nearly ten years. Thus, why did she stop making music?

Kellie has never properly explained the music's slowing during the past decade. She became interested in live theater, cinema, television, and other arts after the record's release. In 2020, Kellie mentioned releasing new songs to her fans, but she hasn't announced when.

Kyle Jacobs, my husband, and I write. He has been working hard on [music for other artists] and other projects. We want to record new songs that elevate and support people, she told Sounds Like Nashville. Unfortunately, Kyle committed suicide by gunfire on February 17, 2023, terminating their collaboration.

Kellie, born June 28, 1986, in Albemarle, North Carolina, became famous after placing sixth on the fifth season of American Idol in 2006. Since then, she has had a great career in singing, songwriting, and television.

Kellie's 2006 debut album, "Small Town Girl," launched her music career. The album had numerous hits, including "Red High Heels" and "I Wonder," which highlighted her complicated relationship with her divorced mother. Her wonderful voice, honest lyrics, and charisma won over country music lovers.

Kellie released albums and songs that showed her flexibility after her breakthrough. "Don't You Know You're Beautiful" and "Best Days of Your Life," a collaboration with Taylor Swift, were on her sophomore album, "Kellie Pickler." Kellie's vocal and songwriting progress was notable on the album.

Over time, Kellie Pickler's career expanded beyond music. She got famous on reality and discussion shows. Kellie and Derek Hough won the 16th season of ABC's "Dancing with the Stars," demonstrating her dancing abilities and charming attitude.

USO engagement was a highlight of Kellie Pickler's career. She performed on multiple USO Tours, cheering up American troops abroad. Kellie's military support showed her patriotism and respect for the military.

Despite her success in Hollywood, Kellie Pickler's music career changed. Kellie appeared to be stepping back from singing in the mid-2010s. However, her decision to "stop singing" may oversimplify her career.

Several circumstances may cause a musician to slow down or stop recording and performing. Personal reasons, new priorities, and the music industry environment are typical. Some artists pursue new projects or take time off for personal matters.

The lawsuit resumed in 2022 after Shakira's agents indicated that the singer would go to trial rather than settle. Shakira told Elle last year that the charges were "false accusations." Reuters reported that she accepted the charges, a €7 million fine, and a €438,000 fine on Monday to escape a three-year jail sentence. Spanish prosecutors had wanted an eight-year sentence and a $26 million punishment.
